

Corporate governance

There is no prescribed corporate governance regime in the UK for AIM companies. Although the UK Corporate Governance Code does not apply to companies whose shares are admitted to trading on AIM, the Directors recognise the importance of sound corporate governance commensurate with the size and nature of the Group and the interests of its shareholders.

The QCA has published the QCA Corporate Governance Code, a set of corporate governance guidelines for AIM companies, which include a code of best practice, comprising principles intended as a minimum standard, and recommendations for reporting corporate governance matters. The Board has adopted the QCA Corporate Governance Code with effect from Admission, so far as it is practicable having regard to the size and nature of the Group.

The Board

The Board is responsible for strategy, performance, approval of any major capital expenditure and the framework of internal controls. There is a formal schedule of matters reserved for the Board and the Board has an annual work plan identifying items for its consideration at each of its meetings.

Board meetings and information provided to the Board.

The Board is scheduled to meet at least seven times a year and one of these meetings is set aside for a detailed consideration of strategy.

The papers circulated prior to Board meetings include the following:

- a report from the Managing Director covering performance and forecasts, an update on strategy and details of any matters referred for Board approval.
- a report from the Finance Director covering financial results, comparison of forecasts with published consensus. This report also covers financing and tax matters and confirmation of internal controls.
- reports from senior management responsible for key functions such as sales, marketing and human resources.
- capital expenditure approval requests and investment proposals.
- papers on issues scheduled for Board consideration for example, health and safety or insurance.

A full set of Board papers is circulated on a quarterly basis. In other months, the Directors receive a summary report providing an update on performance and flagging any issues for consideration by the Board.

External advisers

The Board maintains regular contact with Investec, the company's nominated adviser and the Board obtains advice as required regarding compliance with its obligations under the AIM Rules. Advice is also taken as required from external legal and accountancy firms. The Remuneration Committee also intends to take advice from an independent remuneration consultant as referred to in the Remuneration Committee section.

2 Meetings

- 2.1 The quorum for the transaction of business of the Nomination Committee shall be two members present in person, both of whom must be independent non-executive directors. A duly convened meeting of the Nomination Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by it.
- 2.2 The Nomination Committee shall meet at least once a year and otherwise as required. These meetings shall be convened by any member, at the request of the Chairman.

Terms and Conditions for the Chairman of the Board

Dear Andrew

Letter of Appointment

As you are aware, the board of directors (“Board”) of Jade 320 Limited, expected to be renamed and re-registered as Midwich Group plc (the “Company”) has appointed you as the Company’s Non-Executive Chairman.

This letter sets out the main terms of your appointment. It is agreed between us that this is a contract for services and is not a contract of employment.

By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you are not subject to any restrictions which prevent you from holding office as a director.

9 Appointment

- 9.1 Subject to the remaining provisions of this letter, your appointment shall be for a fixed term of three years commencing on the date of this letter unless terminated earlier by either party giving to the other three months’ written notice. The Board may invite you to serve for an additional period upon such terms as may be agreed.
- 9.2 Your appointment is subject to the articles of association of the Company, as amended from time to time (the “Articles”). Nothing in this letter shall be taken to exclude or vary the terms of the Articles as they apply to you as a director of the Company.
- 9.3 Continuation of your appointment is contingent on your continued satisfactory performance and re-election by the shareholders and any relevant statutory provisions relating to removal of a director. If the shareholders do not confirm your appointment or re-elect you as a director, or you are retired from office under the Articles, your appointment shall terminate automatically, with immediate effect and without compensation.
- 9.4 Non-executive directors are typically expected to serve two three-year terms but may be invited by the Board to serve for an additional period. Any term renewal is subject to Board review and AGM re-election. Notwithstanding any mutual expectation, there is no right to re-nomination by the Board, either annually or after any three-year period.
- 9.5 Notwithstanding paragraphs 9.1 to 9.4, the Company may terminate your appointment with immediate effect if:
- 9.5.1 you have committed any serious or repeated breach or non-observance of the terms of this letter, and/or of your obligations to the Company (which include an obligation not to breach your statutory, fiduciary or common-law duties); or
 - 9.5.2 you have been guilty of any fraud or dishonesty or acted in any manner which, in the opinion of the Company, brings or is likely to bring you or your office or the Company into disrepute or is materially adverse to the interests of the Company;
or

- 9.5.3 you have been declared bankrupt or have made an arrangement with or for the benefit of your creditors, or if you have a county court administration order made against you under the County Court Act 1984;
 - 9.5.4 you have been disqualified from acting as a director;
 - 9.5.5 you make or are found to have made any serious misrepresentations to the Company;
 - 9.5.6 you are guilty of gross misconduct, mismanagement or neglect in the performance of any duty owed by you to the Company;
 - 9.5.7 you become of unsound mind or if an order shall be made in respect of you or your property under any statute relating to mental health;
 - 9.5.8 you are convicted of a criminal offence (other than an offence under the Road Traffic Acts) which in the opinion of the Board may bring you or your office or the Company into disrepute;
 - 9.5.9 you are removed as a director of the Company by resolution passed at a general meeting of the Company;
 - 9.5.10 you cease to be a director of the Company by reason of your vacating office pursuant to any provision of the Articles;
 - 9.5.11 you are no longer entitled to be appointed as a director of the Company or you are removed as a director of the Company;
 - 9.5.12 you breach any provision of the AIM Rules for Companies published by the London Stock Exchange plc (as amended from time to time) and/or the requirements of any relevant regulatory body; or
 - 9.5.13 on completion of an acquisition of the whole of the Company's issued share capital by a bona fide third party offeror, save that in such circumstances, payment in lieu of notice shall be made by the Company.
- 9.6 On termination of the appointment, you shall only be entitled to accrued fees as at the date of termination together with reimbursement of any expenses properly incurred prior to that date.
- 9.7 The expiry or any termination of your directorship shall not affect any of the provisions of your directorship which are expressed to survive termination.
- 9.8 You shall upon the expiry or termination of your directorship immediately deliver up to the Company, or, at the Company's request destroy, all correspondence, documents, papers (including copies of such documents) and property belonging to or relating to either the Company or the Company's business, or to any customer or client of the Company, which may be in your possession or under your control.
- 9.9 In the event that you wish voluntarily to terminate your appointment as the Non-Executive Chairman, you should discuss your intention with regard to such termination with the Managing Director as soon as you can, and explain to the Managing Director your reasons for terminating. To the extent that the Managing Director reasonably requires you to follow any particular procedure with regard to such termination, you should follow such procedure in so far as it is reasonable and practicable for you to do so.

10 Time commitment

- 10.1 Subject to ill health and reasonable holiday absences, you will spend such time on work for the Company as is agreed between you and the Board from time to time, and in any event, such amount of time as is necessary for the proper performance of your role as the Non-Executive Chairman of the Company. This will include attendance at board meetings, the AGM, and any other meetings which require your attendance from time to time (including, without limitation, meetings of committees of which you are a member). In addition, you will be required to consider all relevant papers prior to each meeting. The Board will endeavour to give you reasonable notice of every meeting and of the business which is proposed to be transacted at that meeting.
- 10.2 As at the date of this letter, the Company expects that a time commitment of approximately 20 days per annum will be required from you. Where circumstances require, the Board may require you to commit additional time to the Company (for example in the event of an approach being made by a potential offeror for the Company's share capital or in the event of a proposed significant acquisition or disposal by the Company). In such circumstances, you will be entitled to additional fees (to be agreed with the Board) for such additional work.
- 10.3 By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you are able to allocate sufficient time to meet the expectations of your role. You should obtain the agreement of the Managing Director before accepting additional commitments that might affect the time you are able to devote to your role as the Non-Executive Chairman of the Company.

Dear Michael

Letter of Appointment

As you are aware, the board of directors (“Board”) of Jade 320 Limited, expected to be renamed and re-registered as Midwich Group plc (Company No. 08793266) (the “Company”) has appointed you as a Non-Executive Director.

This letter sets out the main terms of your appointment. It is agreed between us that this is a contract for services and is not a contract of employment.

By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you are not subject to any restrictions which prevent you from holding office as a director.

1 Appointment

- 1.1 Subject to Admission and the remaining provisions of this letter, your appointment shall be for an initial term of three years commencing on Admission, unless terminated earlier by either party giving to the other three months’ prior written notice. The Board may invite you to serve for an additional period.
- 1.2 Your appointment is subject to the articles of association of the Company, as amended from time to time (the “Articles”). Nothing in this letter shall be taken to exclude or vary the terms of the Articles as they apply to you as a director of the Company.
- 1.3 Continuation of your appointment is contingent on your continued satisfactory performance and re-election by the shareholders and any relevant statutory provisions relating to removal of a director. If the shareholders do not confirm your appointment or re-elect you as a director, or you are retired from office under the Articles, your appointment shall terminate automatically, with immediate effect and without compensation.
- 1.4 Non-executive directors are typically expected to serve two three-year terms but may be invited by the Board to serve for an additional period. Any term renewal is subject to Board review and AGM re-election. Notwithstanding any mutual expectation, there is no right to re-nomination by the Board, either annually or after any three-year period.
- 1.5 Notwithstanding paragraphs 9.1 to 1.4, the Company may terminate your appointment with immediate effect if:
 - 1.5.1 you have committed any serious or repeated breach or non-observance of the terms of this letter, and/or of your obligations to the Company (which include an obligation not to breach your statutory, regulatory, fiduciary or common-law duties); or
 - 1.5.2 you have been guilty of any fraud or dishonesty or acted in any manner which, in the opinion of the Board, brings or is likely to bring you or your office or the Company into disrepute or is materially adverse to the interests of the Company; or
 - 1.5.3 you have been declared bankrupt or have made an arrangement with or for the benefit of your creditors, or if you have a county court administration order made against you under the County Court Act 1984;

- 1.5.4 you have been disqualified from acting as a director;
 - 1.5.5 you make or are found to have made any serious misrepresentations to the Company;
 - 1.5.6 you are guilty of gross misconduct, mismanagement or neglect in the performance of any duty owed by you to the Company;
 - 1.5.7 you become of unsound mind or if an order shall be made in respect of you or your property under any statute relating to mental health;
 - 1.5.8 you are convicted of a criminal offence (other than an offence under the Road Traffic Acts) which in the opinion of the Board may bring you or your office or the Company into disrepute;
 - 1.5.9 you are removed as a director of the Company by resolution passed at a general meeting of the Company;
 - 1.5.10 you cease to be a director of the Company by reason of your vacating office pursuant to any provision of the Articles;
 - 1.5.11 you are no longer entitled to be appointed as a director of the Company or you are removed as a director of the Company;
 - 1.5.12 you breach any provision of the AIM Rules for Companies published by the London Stock Exchange plc (as amended from time to time) and/or the requirements of any relevant regulatory body; or
 - 1.5.13 on completion of an acquisition of the whole of the Company's issued share capital by a bona fide third party offeror, save that in such circumstances, payment in lieu of notice shall be made by the Company.
- 1.6 The expiry or any termination of your directorship shall not affect any of the provisions of your directorship which are expressed to survive termination.
- 1.7 You shall upon the expiry or termination of your directorship immediately deliver up to the Company, or, at the Company's request destroy, all correspondence, documents, papers (including copies of such documents) and property belonging to or relating to either the Company or the Company's business, or to any customer or client of the Company, which may be in your possession or under your control.
- 1.8 In the event that you wish voluntarily to terminate your appointment as a Non-Executive Director, you should discuss your intention with regard to such termination with the Non-Executive Chairman as soon as you can, and explain to the Non-Executive Chairman your reasons for terminating. To the extent that the non-Executive Chairman reasonably requires you to follow any particular procedure with regard to such termination, you should follow such procedure in so far as it is reasonable and practicable for you to do so.

2 Time commitment

- 2.1 Subject to ill health and reasonable holiday absences, overall we anticipate that you will spend such time on the affairs of the Company as is reasonably required to perform your duties. This will include attendance at board meetings, the AGM (if held), and any other meetings which require your attendance from time to time (including, without limitation, meetings of committees of which you are a member). In addition, you will be required to

- 2.2 As at the date of this letter, the Company expects that a time commitment of approximately 20 days per annum will be required from you. Where circumstances require, the Board may require you to commit additional time to the Company (for example in the event of an approach being made by a potential offeror for the Company's share capital or in the event of a proposed significant acquisition or disposal by the Company). In such circumstances, you will be entitled to additional fees (to be agreed with the Board) for such additional work.
- 2.3 By accepting this appointment, you confirm that you are able to allocate sufficient time to meet the expectations of your role. You should obtain the agreement of the Non-Executive Chairman before accepting additional commitments that might affect the time you are able to devote to your role as a Non-Executive Director of the Company.
